

the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are undernourished has increased from 600 million to 800 million (FAO 1996).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the nutritional status of the world's population. The United Nations World Food Programme (WFP) has been instrumental in the development of the World Food Summit Declaration (1996), which states that 'the world must ensure that all people have access to sufficient food for a healthy and productive life'. The World Food Summit Declaration also states that 'the world must ensure that all people have access to sufficient food for a healthy and productive life'.
