Fabric exhibition and display stands offer inventive and eye-catching solutions for all types of indoor and outdoor events, promotions, trade shows and exhibitions.

Choose from literature and display stands, backdrops, tables, gazebos and flags, all of which are easily assembled in a few minutes using a simple mechanism.

Or, simply purchase fabric by the m² to create the perfect promotional space for your brand, product or service.

Display them individually or grouped together to create a superior presence at exhibitions. They are also ideal as permanent indoor office or studio props.

The covers are changeable and also washable to help keep them looking their very best at every event.
